

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Health care of the Elderly
The Department	The Department comprises of 11 Consultants.
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Typical working pattern	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Weekly specialty teaching 10 mandatory FY2 study days per year FY2s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement.
Clinical Supervisors	Dr Ahmad, Dr. Maurice Smith, Dr Wickremasinghe, Dr Fowler, Dr Uddin, Dr Al Dhahir, Dr Niranjana, Dr Wijesuriya, Dr Haque, Dr Ahonkhair, Dr Al-Qassab
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Acute Medicine
The department	The Acute medicine department is based at Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital and comprises 7 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital : Red Zone, King George Hospital Ground Floor
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Dave, Dr Rull, Dr Sajid, Dr Salehi, Dr A.Choudhury, Dr Viswanath, Dr El-Showaya
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY2 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am- 5pm MAU Based On call blocks Weekends : long day on-call There is an inpatient ward round and post take ward round every day Specialty Teaching 10 mandatory FY2 study days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Endocrinology
The Department	The Department of Endocrinology of Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals University NHS Trust, provides secondary services. It employs a multidisciplinary approach incorporating adult and paediatric clinical endocrinology. Other special endocrine investigations are performed by a designated team of specialist endocrine nurses, supervised by doctors in training and 6 consultants.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in endocrinology include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Nikookam, Dr Marouf, Dr Nkonge, Dr Casey, Dr Stojanovic, Dr Hossain
Typical working pattern	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm with on call blocks Daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Wed: 13.00-14.00 Endocrine Meeting 10 Mandatory FY2 study days per year FY2s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Cardiology /Respiratory
The Department	The Cardiology and Respiratory Departments comprises of 7 consultants in Cardiology and 6 Consultants in Respiratory
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Cardiology: Dr Koh, Dr Farouqi, Dr Deaner, Dr Kadr, Dr Akhtar, Dr Foo Respiratory: Dr Jubber, Dr Apps, Dr Banka, Dr Hadley, Dr Jayaratnam, Dr Johns.
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am-5pm On call blocks Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Mon: 13.00-14.00 Respiratory meeting Thurs: 13.0-14.00 Cardiology teaching 10 FY2 mandatory study days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based at either Queen's or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Gastroenterology / Metabolic Medicine
The Department	The Gastroenterology and Metabolic Medicine firms at Queen's and King George Hospital consists of 14 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Ashraf, Dr Bettany, Dr Fickling, Dr Magda Smith, Dr Gyawali, Dr El-Mileik, Dr Sinha, Dr Deeney, Dr Premchand, Dr M. Ahmed, Dr Grainger(P/T) Dr Tritto(P/T), Dr Hollanders (P/T), Dr Kooner (P/T)
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this department	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based with on call blocks Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Wed: 13.00-14.00 Specialty Teaching 10 Mandatory FY2 study days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Renal
The Department	The Department comprises of 4 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in renal medicine include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Management of immunocompromised patients • Management of critically ill patients • Acute care following renal transplantation • Haemodialysis and peritoneal dialysis related complications
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Fahal, Dr Silva(P/T), Dr James(P/T), Dr Samad(P/T)
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY2 teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Tues: 13.00-14.00 Renal meeting Thurs: 13.0-14.00 Renal teaching FY2s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in renal 10 Mandatory FY2 study days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queens' Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Urology
The Department	The Urology Department at King George Hospital comprises of 6 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will be based	King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Mr Vandal, Mr Gujral, Mr Kelkar, Mr Kulkarni, Mr Bhanot, Mr Ballaro
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Full 1:7 on call rota Daily handover meetings occur every day at 08.30am and ward rounds at 09.30am. Ward rounds are consultant led on Tues and Fri and led by the SpR on Mon, Wed and Thurs. Specialty teaching is on Wed at 1.00 – 1.30pm 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Surgery Posts
The Department	The Department of Surgery consists of sub-specialties in Trauma, Vascular, Colorectal, upper GI and Breast Surgery. There are 20 consultants
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general surgical problems Educate patients effectively Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors	Mr Amalesh, Mr Amer, Mr Banerjee, Mr Bhargarva, Mr Cheatle, Mr Coker, Mr Hanson, Mr Huang, Mr Hepworth, Mr Ismail, Mr Jacob, Mr Khoo, Mr Mukherjee, Mr Ogedegbe, Mr Ojo, Mr Pitanthankal, Mr Sayer, Mr Saharay, Mr Shami, Mr Snooks
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. In addition they are responsible for managing the pre-admission of surgical patients (King George Hospital only) and managing acute surgical emergencies. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY2 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	FY2's will be ward based and working for one or two consultants within a firm. Nights On calls (work with A&E) 1 : 8 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Obstetrics & Gynaecology
The department	The Obstetrics & Gynaecology Department is based at Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital and comprises 27 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital : Red Zone, King George Hospital Ground Floor
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Miss Adib, Miss Bano, Miss Bhan, Mr Burgess, Miss Burrell, Miss Chakravarti, Mr Coker, Ms Hargreaves, Mrs Hawkins, Mr Howard, Miss Kollipara, Miss Lawrence, Mr Masood, Miss Maclaverty, Miss Nair, Mr Nnochiri, Mr Olorunshola, Mr Opemuyi, Mr Osei, Miss Otigbah, Miss Sajjad, Mr Sathanandan, Miss Sharma, Miss Swinhoe, Miss Tebbutt, Mr Thompson
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY2 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am- 5pm On call rota 2:4 sat or Sun 1 x week long day till 9.00pm There is an inpatient ward round and post take ward round every day Specialty Teaching Friday afternoon 10 FY2 Mandatory Study Days per year Attend observational sessions in theatres, clinics, labour wards
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Psychiatry
The Department	North East London NHS Foundation Trust. This Mental Health Service became a NHS Foundation Trust in June 2008. Since becoming a Foundation Trust it has striven to provide even better care to further develop and deliver the local services. Out-Patient clinics are run on-site and in the Community
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be based on the ward or in outpatients during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in psychiatry include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managing and assessing acute psychiatric presentations • Diagnosis and treatment of common and complex psychiatric problems • Understanding of mental health legislation • Psychiatric liaison in an acute hospital
Where the placement is based	Goodmayes Hospital, Ilford, Essex
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Biggs, Dr Duffett
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctors with other members of the clinical team will provide care to inpatients and outpatients under clinical supervision. Trainees are expected to attend structured teaching programmes provided by the department and also the FY2 teaching programme at Queen's and King George Hospital. The doctor will be responsible for such clinical duties as provided by their Consultant but this will not include emergencies
Typical working pattern in this placement	On call Rota 1:15 3 shift patterns 5pm-9pm, 9pm-9am, 9am-5pm Specialty weekly teaching 10 FY2 Mandatory Study Days
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at Goodmayes Hospital, Barley Lane, Ilford, Essex
It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Accident & Emergency
The Department	The Department comprises of 9 Consultants.
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Typical working pattern	Typical shift pattern: 08.00-18.00, 10.00-20.00, 12.00-22.00, 16.00-04.00 22.00-08.00 6 days on 3 days off Specialty teaching Wednesday a.m. 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days
Clinical Supervisors	Mr Vaisreddy, Dr Aronica, Dr Hicks, Mr Idowu, Mr Jeevan, Dr Salter, Dr Furse, Dr Pearce, Mr Abe
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Ear, Nose & Throat Surgery
The Department	The Department at King George Hospital and Queen's Hospital comprises of 5 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will be based	King George Hospital and Queen's Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Mr Kotecha, Mr Kaddour, Mr Chowdhury, Mr Owa, Mr Chatrath
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Full 1:7 on call rota Daily handover meetings occur every day at 08.30am and ward rounds at 09.30am. Ward rounds are consultant led on Tues and Fri and led by the SpR on Mon, Wed and Thurs. Specialty teaching held weekly 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at either Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Haematology
The Department	The Haematology Department at Queen's Hospital comprises of 6 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will is based	Queen's Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Grant, Dr Brownell, Dr Stevens, Dr Hemmaway, Dr Khrisnan, Dr Khalid
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Mon-Fri 9am-5pm On call 9am-10pm 1 : 7 Fri, Sat, Sun 9am-10pm (Mon off in lieu) Daily handover meetings occur every day at 08.30am and ward rounds at 09.30am. Weekly Specialty teaching 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Paediatrics
The Department	The Paediatric Department at Queen's and King George Hospital comprises of 17 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will be based	King George Hospital and Queen's Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Abdulla, Dr M Ahmed, Dr Bagtharia, Dr Banerjee, Dr Das, Dr Keane, Dr Mannan, Dr Prasad, Dr Rao, Dr Rawal, Dr Subramanian, Dr Robinson, Dr Sharma, Dr Shirsalkar, Dr Solebo, Dr Vasileiadis, Dr Lopez
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Full 1:8 on call rota Daily handover meetings occur every day and ward rounds. Specialty teaching is on Friday 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at either King George Hospital and Queen's Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Neurosurgery
The Department	The Neurology Department at Queen's Hospital comprises of 8 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will is based	Queen's Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Mr Brecknell, Mr Vindalacheruvu, Mr David, Mr Bavetta, Mr Benjamin, Mr Pollock, Mr Arvin, Mr Low
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Full 1:7 on call rota Daily handover meetings occur every day and ward rounds at 08.00hrs. Specialty weekly teaching 10 Mandatory FY2 Study Days per year
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at Queen's Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Anaesthetics / Intensive Care
The Department	The Department comprises of 45 Consultants.
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F2 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Typical working pattern	Full 1 : 8 rota Long days 8am – 8.30pm Short days 8.1m – 3.00pm 3 weeks induction – no annual leave or study leave permitted in the first 3 weeks 10 mandatory FY2 study days per year
Clinical Supervisors	All Consultants Clinical Supervisors Educational Supervisors: Dr Bawa, Dr J Khan, Dr Wijayatilake, Dr De la Cerda Foundation Programme Directors: Dr P Walker, Dr E Smithers
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.