

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Acute Medicine
The department	The Acute medicine department is based at Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital and comprises 7 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital : Red Zone, King George Hospital Ground Floor
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Dave, Dr Rull, Dr Sajid, Dr Salehi, Dr A.Choudhury, Dr Viswanath, Dr El-Showaya
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am- 5pm MAU Based 1 : 5 5pm-10.00pm shift with on call team Weekends : long day on-call There is an inpatient ward round and post take ward round every day FY1 teaching is Wed 1.00-2.00pm
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Endocrinology
The Department	The Department of Endocrinology of Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals University NHS Trust, provides secondary services. It employs a multidisciplinary approach incorporating adult and paediatric clinical endocrinology. Other special endocrine investigations are performed by a designated team of specialist endocrine nurses, supervised by doctors in training and 6 consultants.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in endocrinology include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Nikookam, Dr Marouf, Dr Nkonge, Dr Casey Dr Stojanovic, Dr Hossain
Typical working pattern	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Wed: 13.00-14.00 FY1 teaching & Endocrine Meeting FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Health care of the Elderly
The Department	The Department comprises of 11 Consultants.
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in endocrinology include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposure to complex cases • Opportunities to participate in audit, case write ups and research
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Typical working pattern	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Wed: 13.00-14.00 FY1 teaching FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement.
Clinical Supervisors	Dr Ahmad, Dr. Maurice Smith, Dr Wickremasinghe, Dr Fowler, Dr Uddin, Dr Al Dhahir, Dr Niranjana, Dr Wijesuriya, Dr Haque, Dr Ahonkhair, Dr Al-Qassab
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Cardiology /Respiratory
The Department	The cardiology and respiratory comprises of 7 consultants in Cardiology and 6 Consultants in Respiratory
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Cardiology: Dr Koh, Dr Farouqi, Dr Deaner, Dr Kadr, Dr Akhtar, Dr Foo Respiratory: Dr Jubber, Dr Apps, Dr Banka, Dr Hadley, Dr Jayaratnam, Dr Johns.
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Mon: 13.00-14.00 Respiratory meeting Wed: 13.00-14.00 FY1 teaching Thurs: 13.0-14.00 Cardiology teaching FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in cardiology / respiratory, weekend
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Gastroenterology / Metabolic Medicine
The Department	The gastroenterology and metabolic medicine firms at Queen's and King George Hospital consists of 14 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Ashraf, Dr Bettany, Dr Fickling, Dr Magda Smith, Dr Gyawali, Dr El-Mileik, Dr Sinha, Dr Deeney, Dr Premchand, Dr M. Ahmed, Dr Grainger(P/T) Dr Tritto(P/T), Dr Hollanders (P/T), Dr Kooner (P/T)
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this department	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Wed: 13.00-14.00 FY1 teaching & Gastroenterology FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in cardiology / respiratory
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Renal
The Department	The Department comprises of 4 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers. Particular learning opportunities in renal medicine include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Management of immunocompromised patients • Management of critically ill patients • Acute care following renal transplantation • Haemodialysis and peritoneal dialysis related complications
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Dr Fahal, Dr Silva(P/T), Dr James(P/T), Dr Samad(P/T)
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching programme. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am - 5pm Ward Based. Cardiology and respiratory medicine have daily consultant ward rounds and regular MDT meetings Tues: 13.00-14.00 Renal meeting Wed: 13.00-14.00 FY1 teaching Thurs: 13.0-14.00 Renal teaching FY1s are on the standard general medicine on call: acute blocks of 5 days or blocks of nights, one per 4 month placement. In addition there are late shifts 2pm – 9pm in renal
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering &

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Urology
The Department	The Urology Department at King George Hospital comprises of 6 Consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement will be based	King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors for the placement	Mr Vandal, Mr Gujral, Mr Kelkar, Mr Kulkarni, Mr Bhanot, Mr Ballaro
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Working Day Monday – Friday 8am-4pm Ward Based. Daily handover meetings occur every day at 08.30am and ward rounds at 09.30am. Ward rounds are consultant led on Tues and Fri and led by the SpR on Mon, Wed and Thurs. FY1 teaching is on Wed at 1.00 – 1.30pm
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The post will be based at King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Obstetrics & Gynaecology
The department	The Obstetrics & Gynaecology Department is based at Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital and comprises 27 consultants
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general medical problems • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital : Red Zone, King George Hospital Ground Floor
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Dave, Dr Rull, Dr Sajid, Dr Salehi, Dr A.Choudhury, Dr Viswanath
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal Working Day Monday – Friday 9am- 5pm 2:4 sat or Sun 1 x week long day till 9.00pm There is an inpatient ward round and post take ward round every day FY1 teaching is Wed 1.00-2.00pm Attend observational sessions in theatres, clinics, labour wards
Employer information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust
Individual Placement Description

Placement	F1 Surgery Posts
The Department	The Department of Surgery consists of sub-specialties in Trauma, Vascular, Colorectal, upper GI and Breast Surgery. There are 20 consultants
The type of work expected and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors in hospital posts will generally be ward based during the 'normal' working day and expected to deliver the daily medical care of all the patients on their ward irrespective of specialty. The overall educational objectives of the F1 year are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients with general surgical problems Educate patients effectively Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Queen's Hospital and King George Hospital
Clinical Supervisors	Mr Amalesh, Mr Amer, Mr Banerjee, Mr Bhargarva, Mr Cheatle, Mr Coker, Mr Hanson, Mr Huang, Mr Hepworth, Mr Ismail, Mr Jacob, Mr Khoo, Mr Mukherjee, Mr Ogedegbe, Mr Ojo, Mr Pitanthankal, Mr Sayer, Mr Saharay, Mr Shami, Mr Snooks
Main duties of the placement	The F1 doctor is responsible with other staff for the ward care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. In addition they are responsible for managing the pre-admission of surgical patients (King George Hospital only) and managing acute surgical emergencies. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and the FY1 teaching sessions. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	FY1's will be ward based and working for one or two consultants within a firm. Working day Monday – Friday 8am – 5pm FY1's also participate in a ward / emergency rota (which excludes nights) The Queen's on call rota is 1:12 8am-8pm on call 10am-10pm on call day plus one day off every 2 weeks. The King George on call rota is 1: 7 on calls

	8am-8pm, no second on call plus ½ day off every week
Employer Information	The employer for this post is Barking, Havering & Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust The posts are based either at Queen's Hospital or King George Hospital

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change