

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Emergency Medicine
The department	The Emergency Department comprises five Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people and sees about 80,000 new patients per year.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through the Emergency Department will spend four months working a full shift pattern with fixed annual leave. The rota is seven days work in a row with two days off and annual leave to follow nights. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the ED are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep accurate, thorough medical records • Handover and transfer patients care safely and effectively • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital Emergency Department.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr Suneil Ramnani, Mr An Khan, Dr T Davies, Dr Curtis Emordi
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the emergency care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as

	allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0800 Clerking patients as above 1700 Handover or 10.00 – 19.00 Twilight: 15.00 – 21.00 16.00 – 01.00 Nights: 22.00 – 08.00 There is some variation to the above with shifts from 8 – 11 hours. No oncall requirements
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Emergency Department at PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 General Medicine / Care of the Elderly
The department	The Care of the Elderly Department comprises 6 Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through the Medical Departments will do on calls and will carry the 'crash' bleep periodically requiring urgent assessment of patients who have arrested. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in General Medicine/Care of the Elderly are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Managing safe discharges • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital – Harold Ward
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr A Dain, Dr J Tharakan, Dr K Gunasekera, Dr J Snook, Dr Ambe, Dr Harripaul
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the complex care and rehabilitation of elderly patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will see various medical conditions and manage patients discharge to ensure safety within the community. They have the opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected

	to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0900 – 17.00 Preparation for daily morning ward rounds, Board Meetings, jobs, TTA's, reviewing sick patients, seeing to new admissions, speaking to families and addressing any patient concerns. Daily handover to on-call team. Weekly MDT meeting. Twilight: Nights: 21.00 – 09.00 Two sets of seven nights covering acute admissions and ward patients. On call requirements: Medical on-calls once a week and a full weekend every 6 – 8 weeks. If on call on weekday, finish on ward at 5pm and cover ward patients or acute admissions until 9pm.
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Rehabilitation Ward for Elderly Patients.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Endocrinology / Diabetes
The department	The Diabetes/Endocrinology Department comprises two Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through the Diabetes/Endocrinology Department will be part of the Medical on-call rota and will carry the 'crash' bleep periodically requiring urgent assessment of patients who have arrested. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in Diabetes/Endocrinology Department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital – Winter Wards
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Sennick
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of general medical patients predominantly oncology patients, some diabetes related and some endocrinology related. They have the opportunity to work closely with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education

	Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0900 – 17.00 Preparation for daily morning ward rounds, White Board Meetings, jobs, reviewing sick patients, seeing to new admissions, speaking to families and addressing any patient concerns. Daily handover to on-call team. Weekly MDT meeting. Twilight: Nights: 21.00 – 10.00 Two sets of seven nights covering acute admissions and ward patients. On call requirements: EAU and ward cover – 09.00am - 21.00pm.
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be ward based.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 GP South Street Surgery
The department	The practice comprises 12 GP's and serves the town of Bishops Stortford and surrounding villages with a population of 40,000.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through this placement be expected to participate in seeing patients, holding clinics, attending home visits and residential home rotas. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in General Practice are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients and their relatives • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	South Street Surgery, Bishops Stortford
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Milinda Tennekoon, Dr Sarah Dixon and Dr Sarah Galton
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients. They have the opportunity to work closely with their GP Trainers. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the Surgery and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by GP Trainers including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Mon – Fri 09.00 – 17.30 Thursday – educational day
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra

	Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based at the South Street Surgery, Bishops Stortford. Use of a car is strongly advised.
--	--

Placement	F2 GP Nuffield House, Harlow
The department	The practice comprises 7 GP's and serves the town of Harlow and surrounding villages with a population of 80,000.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through this placement be expected to participate in seeing patients, holding clinics, attending home visits and residential home rotas. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in General Practice are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients and their relatives • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Nuffield House, Harlow
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Debs Basu
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients. They have the opportunity to work closely with their GP Trainees. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the Surgery and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by GP Trainer including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Mon – Fri 0900 – 17.30 Thursday – educational day
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based at the Nuffield House Surgery, Harlow. Use of a car is strongly advised.

Placement	F2 GP Loughton Health Centre, Loughton.
The department	The practice comprises 6 GP's and serves the town of Loughton.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through this placement be expected to participate in seeing patients, holding clinics, attending home visits and residential home rotas. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in General Practice are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients and their relatives • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Loughton Health Centre, Loughton
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Tasneem Kanamia, Dr Ashfak Ahmed
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients. They have the opportunity to work closely with their GP Trainers. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the Surgery and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by GP Trainers including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Mon – Fri 0900 – 17.30 Thursday – educational day
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based at the Loughton Health Centre, Loughton. Use of a car is strongly advised.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Urology
The department	The Urology Department comprises four Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Standard General Surgery work including pre-op management and post-op care (analgesia, anticoagulation management, discharge documentation etc). We do General Surgical FY2 on-calls which are very useful. Exposure to Urological emergencies which are different from General Surgery cases. Opportunity to attend clinics. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post is to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Managing safe discharges • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Placement is based at PAH and occasionally at St Margaret, Epping (for clinics). Urology does not have a dedicated ward so our patients are spread throughout the hospital
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr Jaspal Viridi, Mr R Samman, Mr B Potluri, Miss H Andersen
Main duties of the placement	Patient list organizing, discharge documentation, patient clerking. Seeing acutely unwell patients. Ward jobs including phlebotomy, cannulation, catheterization.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Mon- Fri, 0745-1830 (on average) Twilight: see on call Nights: none Weekends see on call Oncall requirements: Same on-call rota for General Surgery FY2s (average 1 weekend ward cover 0800-2100 and A&E cover 1100-0000. 2 weeks ward cover and 1 week A&E cover).
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Urology Department at PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Trauma and Orthopaedics
The department	Trauma and Orthopaedics (Elective & Emergency). The Department comprises 13 Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through the Department will be involved in Ward Rounds (Consultant/SpR,ST led), Ward Jobs, on calls – ED and ward referrals and assisting in Theatre. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep accurate, thorough medical records • Handover and transfer patients care safely and effectively • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital Orthopaedic Department.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr N Saw, Mr Khan, Mr Watson, Mr Amini, Mr Kutty, Mr S Wimsey
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education

	Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0800 Ward round, jobs, theatre, clinic 1700 Handover Twilight ED referrals and ward cover Nights ED referrals and ward cover Weekend ED referrals and ward cover Oncall requirements 14 nights, approx three weekends (Fri/Sat/Sun on call long days 8 – 8) approx 1 in 8 on call long days.
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Orthopaedic Department at PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Colorectal / General Surgery
The department	The Colorectal Department comprises 2 Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F1 Doctors rotating through the Department will work from 8 – 5 each day. The overall educational objectives of the F1 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Main site.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr Vivekanandan, Mr Lalude
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0800 Ward Rounds MDT, ward jobs, Theatres, chasing scans 1700 Handover Oncall requirements to be advised on appointment
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Surgical Department at PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Haem / Onc
The department	Haematology. Please note this post is shared with Palliative Care (Thursday and Friday at St Clare Hospice).
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Prepare the ward round list for Monday and Thursday consultant ward round, undertake own or SpR led ward rounds other days. Answer queries/ review unwell patients in the Haematology day unit who are having Chemo/ blood transfusions. See the new referrals and add to the list for consultant review. Do 3-6 venesections per day in the Haematology Day unit. Observe bone marrow biopsy, may be opportunity to perform one if time allows for training in this. Attend MDT on Tuesday afternoon. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans • Stabilize sick patients and start initial treatment • See patients in resus • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Prescribe safely • Keep accurate, thorough medical records • Handover and transfer patients care safely and effectively • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	All wards and Haematology day unit at Princess Alexandra Hospital.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Al Refaie Dr G Read
Main duties of the placement	As above. See and review patients on Haematology day unit and hospital wards, carry out usual jobs of junior doctor

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Monday-Friday 9 - 5 Twilight: 0 Nights 0 Oncall requirements - none
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000. Use of a car is strongly advised.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Gastroenterology
The department	The Department of Gastroenterology comprises 4 Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital Surgery Department.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr R Phillips, Dr D Ghosh, Dr Kumar Lakshmana, Dr Sachin Gupta
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 09800 Ward Rounds MDT & ward jobs 1700 TTA's and Handover Weekend: 1 in four months (9-9)

	EAU weekend: 1 in four months
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the General Medical Department within PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Respiratory
The department	3 Consultants 2 SpR 1 FY2 and 1 CMT 2 FY1s
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	A good mix of general and respiratory medicine. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	PAH Locke Ward
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr M Anwar
Main duties of the placement	FY2 to join daily team ward round led by senior. Will need to do ward round some days. Help junior staff with ward jobs. Once a week on-call.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 9am-5 /6pm Twilight: N/A Nights 2 weeks in 4 months Weekends 3- 4 weekends per placement 9am – 9pm

	Oncall requirements, once a week
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in Locke Ward, PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Histopathology
The department	The Michael Letcher Pathology Building Princess Alexandra Hospital. Please note this post is shared with Palliative Care (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at St Clare Hospice).
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Cut-up sessions, done individually LCP audit, Departmental teaching. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Pathology building
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Evodokia Arkoumani
Main duties of the placement	Cut –up sessions Audit MDT
Typical working pattern in this placement	Monday To Friday 9-5. Oncall requirements - none
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Cellular Pathology Unit, PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

Use of a car is strongly advised.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Psychiatry
The department	Mental Health Units, Princess Alexandra Hospital, Harlow and St Margaret's Hospital (SMH), Epping, Essex.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively Become life-long learners and teachers
Where the placement is based	Mental Health Units, Princess Alexandra Hospital, Harlow and St Margaret's Hospital (SMH), Epping, Essex.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Zuzana Walker, FRCPsych, MD (Reader UCL). Dr Tim Stevens
Main duties of the placement	Be responsible with Core Trainees for the day to day medical and psychiatric care of inpatients on Roding Ward (functional unit), Kitwood Ward (Organic Ward) under the supervision of the consultants and to make full admission and progress notes for all such patients. Be responsible with Core Trainees for the day to day medical and psychiatric care of day hospital patients in Greenwood Day Unit under the supervision of the consultants and to make full admission and progress notes for all such patients. To be a core member of the Epping CMHT. This involves participation in the weekly referral meetings

	and assessment of patients in the community on joint visits with other members of the CMHT (CPNs, Occupational Therapists, Psychologists, Dr Walker or Dr Stevens – this is optional depending on other commitments). Assessment of new and follow up patients in the outpatient clinic under the supervision of Dr Walker and Dr Stevens. The FY2 will be covered by the Core Trainees for Old Age Psychiatry working with Dr Stevens / Dr Walker. The same cover will apply for annual leave and study leave but at any one time only one of the three doctors may be away. There is a well-established local training programme, which includes seminars/lectures, case conferences/journal clubs on Thursday afternoon at Parndon Hall, PAH. The F2 will be encouraged to attend courses considered necessary to enhance and improve professional skills and leading to the attainment of recognised postgraduate qualifications relevant to FY2. The FY2 will be encouraged if appropriate to be involved in current research projects. The FY2 if they wish can take an active part in audit/research in collaboration with other members of the community team.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days Ward duties, Out Patient Clinic, Day Unit, Ward Reviews, Out Patient Reviews, Day Unit Reviews Oncall requirements: The FY2 is expected to take part in a 1:8 rota for ECT. The FY2 will take part in a 1 in 14 full shift on-call system.
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust, a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Emergency Assessment Unit (EAU)
The department	The Emergency Assessment Unit is situated beside the Emergency Department at the Princess Alexandra Hospital. The PAH Trust serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital Emergency Assessment Unit
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Y Barlow, Dr G Brambilla, Dr Adamou
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 0800 Ward Rounds, TTA's, ward jobs, 1600 Handover Oncall requirements
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in the Emergency Assessment Unit within PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Cardiology
The department	The Cardiology Department comprises 3 Consultants. The department serves the West Essex Region and a local population of 258,000 people.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through the Cardiology will be part of the weekend on-call rota and will hold the 006 emergency bleep doing ward jobs and clerking new patients. The overall educational objectives of the F2 post in the department are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Princess Alexandra Hospital Cardiology Department.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Hossam Elgendi, Dr Jeremy Sayer, Dr Rohan Jagathesan
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: 08.30 Ward Rounds, CCU, ward jobs, TTA's, order scans, clerk new patients, review patients 1700 Handover Oncall requirements
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in Fleming Ward within PAH, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL

Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Palliative Care
The department	St Clare Hospice, Hastingwood, Near Harlow, Essex. St Clare Hospice is a local charity established in 1990 caring for the people of West Essex and the East Hertfordshire Border. The care offered is for patients, families and friends and is given totally free of charge. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They care for patients who have a palliative illness which may include cancer or any other life limiting illness. Diseases that cannot be cured such as Motor Neurone Disease, Parkinson's, MS and Dementia. • They care for people aged 18 years and over regardless of gender, belief, religion, culture or sexuality. • They care for patients and families in an individual way, actively involving people in a way that supports all their needs at a difficult time in their lives. • They respect the privacy, dignity and independence of all patients we care for. Providing care in a safe and comfortable environment. • The services are regularly reviewed and developed to ensure we deliver the care and services people need. We actively seek the views of people who use our services to guide our future development. • The clinical care is delivered by a specialist team which consists of Doctors, Specialist Nurses, Physiotherapists, Occupational Therapist, Psychological Therapists, Complementary Therapists, Counsellors, Social Workers and Chaplains Please note this post is shared with either Histopathology or Haem/Oncology.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The overall educational objectives of the F2 post at St Clare are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take a history and examine a patient • Make initial management plans and discuss with senior colleagues • Identify and escalate sick patients to senior colleagues • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	St Clare Hospice, Hastingwood, Near Harlow, Essex.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Qamar Abbas, Dr John Zeppetella
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Days: Mon – Weds (Histopathology share) Thurs – Fri (Haem/Onc share) No oncall requirements
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based at St Clare Hospice on the outskirts of Harlow. Use of a car is strongly advised.

NORTH EAST THAMES FOUNDATION SCHOOL Individual Placement Description

Placement	F2 Sexual Health / CDAT / Microbiology
The department	The post will be shared between Sexual Health, CDAT and the Microbiology Department at PAH. There will be no on-calls.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	All F2 Doctors rotating through this post will spend four months working a 9 – 5 Monday to Friday pattern. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The overall educational objectives of the F2 post are to provide the trainee with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be able to • become proficient at taking a sexual history • be able to recognize, diagnose and manage all common sexually transmitted infections • become proficient in managing young people presenting with sexual health problems • will be able to undertake HIV testing including provision of pre and post test information • will gain an understanding of how HIV positive patients are diagnosed, investigated and managed • Work in close conjunction with other specialties • Identify and synthesise problems • Develop awareness of prescribing issues • Keep an accurate and relevant medical record • Manage time and clinical priorities effectively • Communicate effectively with patients, relatives and colleagues • Use evidence, guidelines and audit to benefit patient care • Act in a professional manner at all times • Cope with ethical and legal issues which occur during the management of patients • Educate patients effectively • Become life-long learners and teachers.
Where the placement is based	Sexual Health Unit and CDAT (Galen House) and the Microbiology Department at Princess Alexandra Hospital.
Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Gail Crowe and Dr Faisal Bin-Reza.
Main duties of the placement	The F2 doctor is responsible with other staff for the care of patients and the maintenance of the patient's medical record. They will have opportunity to work with the consultants in the Department. They are expected to attend the structured teaching programmes provided

	by the department and by the Medical Education Department. The doctor will be responsible for such other specific clinical duties as allocated by consultants including performing other duties in occasional emergencies and unforeseen circumstances.
Typical working pattern in this placement	See attached.  FY2 Sexual Health Timetable August 201 No oncall requirements
Employer information	The employer for this post is The Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust. The post will be based in Galen House (close to the main site) and Princess Alexandra Hospital, which is a medium sized acute NHS Trust and provides an extensive range of secondary services for the growing local community of approximately 260,000.